

Peer Mediator Interview Questions

1. Why do you want to be a peer mediator?
2. Do you think conflict can ever be good or productive? If so, why?
3. Can you tell us about a time that you resolved a conflict with a friend, family member, teacher, or peer?
4. Tell us a little bit about conflicts that you see in your school that you think could benefit from peer mediation.
5. Becoming a peer mediator requires time and dedication to training, as well as building community with other mediators in the school. Is this something you think you can commit to? Can you commit to being a peer mediator for one full school year?
6. Being a peer mediator means that you keep this confidential when you are mediating conflicts. Why do you think that is important?
7. Peer mediators are leaders in the school community. What is one way you currently see yourself as a leader?

